On the northeast tip of North America, on an island called Newfoundland, there's a airport. It used to be one of the biggest airports in the world, and next to it is a town called Gander. There's a two-person police department. An elementary school. An SPCA. A local TV station. And a hockey rink. It's a small place on a giant rock in the ocean. Everybody knows everybody else. And everybody in this room has a story about how they started that day.
