Upstage Theatre Company Agreement

Upon completing the audition form, should you be cast in the production, you agree to attend all rehearsals, as well as the scheduled dates outlined above and in the rehearsal schedule provided at the first rehearsal. You commit to dedicating ten hours of rehearsal time each week throughout the production period and to being available for all rehearsals, including the Bump-in and Bump-out sessions, as scheduled.

By accepting a role in the cast, you acknowledge that if your attendance falls below three rehearsals without adequate notification, or continued absences the production team reserves the right to reconsider your position in the cast upto and beyond 8-10 weeks into the production. Furthermore, please be advised that all roles are contingent upon performance and commitment to both the role and the company. Upstage Theatre Company and the production team retain the right to terminate your appointment at any time in accordance with our constitution and performance management policy.

YOU ACKNOWLEDGE YOU WILL NOT BE CAST without a valid WWCC check for the duration of the production.

You accept that the production team's decisions are final, and no correspondence regarding casting decisions will be entertained. Upstage Theatre Company does not provide feedback to auditionees regarding their performance or the outcomes of auditions.

You agree to become a financial member of Upstage Theatre Company and to adhere to our membership policy and guidelines, which are available on our website. Additionally, you agree to sign our Volunteer Agreement. By signing this agreement, you accept the conditions of our constitution and policies, and you acknowledge that you enter into this volunteer agreement by selecting "Agree" on this form, thereby binding yourself to the guidelines of our Volunteer Agreement (all of which are available on our website).

By selecting "Agree," you acknowledge this as a binding agreement between you and Upstage Theatre Company.
